

Owls Summer Grounds

We started grounds week by creating our own rivers.

As a group, we planned the river we were going to create then used sand and stones to build it. We tested our rivers using water and saw erosion and deposition in action.

We also create our own insects using wire. We used pliers to bend and twist the wire.

